

Title

React Native News App

Definition

A Cryptocurrency news app in react native expo. It helps crypto traders get quick news on what is going on in

in the crypto environment

Components

- Navbar

Returns a stylized AppBar component with a heading of "Home"

- Loading

returns a view component with contents just saying "Loading..."

- Text

a component for displaying text

- ScrollView

enables the scrolling of information.

Component that wraps platform ScrollView while providing integration with touch locking "responder" system

- Card

enables the display of relevant content.

Cards contain content and actions about a single subject.

- Image

A component for displaying different types of images, including network images, static resources, temporary local images, and images from local disk, such as the camera roll.

Screens

- Home Screen

Returns a view component.

the query is fetched asynchronously from the API link using axios and returned as an array of responses.

this component is stateful.

during the query fetch, a Loading component is displayed till the query is carried out

IMPORTANT NOTE

the api link takes only the current date!!! make sure to update it in
./screens/HomeScreen/index.js